MRCB Hosts Mayor of London's Visit to Kuala Lumpur Sentral CBD

Kuala Lumpur Sentral CBD, 30 November 2014 – Malaysian Resources Corporation Berhad (MRCB) today hosted a visit by Mr. Boris Johnson, the Mayor of London who stopped over at the country's largest transportation hub upon his arrival here from the Kuala Lumpur International Airport via the ERL express rail service.

The Mayor who is on a three-day visit to Kuala Lumpur was ushered to the Stesen Sentral Kuala Lumpur (SSKL) VIP Lounge for a briefing on the development of Kuala Lumpur CBD and the outlook for MRCB as a major property player in Malaysia. He was greeted by YBhg. Tan Sri Azlan Zainol MRCB's Chairman and YBhg. Tan Sri Mohamad Salim Fateh Din MRCB's Group Managing Director and members of the senior management team from MRCB.

The briefing to Mr. Johnson was tailored to convey MRCB's interest in exploring investment and development opportunities in London and to also participate in urban regeneration works on sectors of London, with emphasis on transport hubs and transport oriented developments.

Commenting on the visit by Mr. Johnson, by YBhg. Tan Sri Mohamad Salim said, "MRCB has already made many trips to London, visiting various sites and engaging industry players in London to identify potential co-development partners. The Group is currently in active discussions with a number of parties on various projects and finding the right partner".

Johnson's stopover in Kuala Lumpur Sentral CBD came almost a month after a visit by his deputy, Sir Edward Lister, who was also briefed on MRCB's capability to develop large transport hubs that serve as convergence points for various land transportation modes, especially rail networks.

MRCB's capability also includes its finesse to seamlessly integrate residential and commercial buildings within an urban transportation hub setting that incorporates built-in environments for recreation, hospitality, shopping and dining experience as demonstrated by the successful development of Kuala Lumpur Sentral CBD.

Ends.

About MRCB
